10. [redacted] STAT
called to say that [redacted] in his branch, had received a call from STAT a Colonel King, in the Army Civil Affairs Branch, concerning the private bill for the relief of [redacted] It seems that the House Judiciary Com STAT mittee has written to the Army and requested a report from them on the [redacted] case. Colonel King has offered to provide whatever information the STAT Agency desires in a report from the Army. I advised Frank that we had communicated openly with the Senate Judiciary Committee on this bill and so saw no reason why the same procedure could not be utilized with the House Committee. This information is to be passed on to the Army with thanks for their offer to be of assistance.
